A COMMONLY ACCEPTED IDEA

THAT THE ARTIST IS A KIND OF HUMAN MONSTER OF SELFISHNESS.

"It has been a commonly accepted idea that the artist is a kind of human monster of selfishness," said Mr. Bauer in a recent interview. This famous pianist, who will open the Choral Union concert series at Ann Arbor on Oct. 20, talks almost as interestingly as he plays. "Not long ago a young friend of mine who was very much in love with one of my pupils," he continued, "declared that she would never marry him. 'Life with an artist would be impossible; they are the most selfish people in the world,' she said.

"Naturally I have encountered a few artists in the course of my career, and I cannot see that the percentage of selfish ones among them is greater than that in any other group of human beings. Artists are greedy of just one thing—their time. But so is anyone else whose work demands unleasing concentration, whose success depends on his persistence. Almost every real artist, when he is not actively doing his work, is thinking about it. A perfect painting, essay or the rendition of a Brahms sonata is the result of long, solitary hours of contemplation and study. The artist is prodigal of most things, his money, his hospitality, his affections; but he is jealous of his time. He needs it if he is to produce something worth while.

"The primary consideration in judging a man should be to ascertain his aims. If he is toiling only for his own gain and that of his family (which is part of himself) then he is selfish. If, however, he is working for the benefit of people in general as well as himself he is not selfish.

"The artist who is worth while is working for humanity. He may be trying to spread an idea that will make for progress; he may be trying to establish ideals of culture and beauty, or he may be giving brief hours of relaxation to those who need it. If he devotes himself more intensely to his own development it is because he feels that he has more to give out. The interpretive artist must take great care of himself physically. If he is not in the pink of health it effects his performance; yet half of his selfishness comes from his exacting care of his body.

"Selfishness is, after all, a word whose context is conventional. If more people assumed the attitude of the artist towards themselves and their work the world would be more progressive. Unselfishness in the essentials often demands a certain amount of so-called selfishness in some of the inessentials."

Other concerts in this series will be given by John McCormack, tenor, Nov. 22; Ignaz Friedman, pianist, Dec. 5; Fritz Kreisler, violinist, Jan. 9; Erika Morini, violinist. Feb. 3; Rosa Raisa, soprano, and Giacomo Rimini, baritone, March 14.

GAVE MENTAL TEST TALK.

The Rotarians were entertained at their noonday luncheon Monday by Prof. N. A. Harvey, who gave them a talk on mental tests. He showed testss, for grade pupils and also the army tests and explained to his audience the benefits received by using these tests in the grades to determine the mental ability of the child as well as the adults. His talk was very interesting and enjoyed by the Rotarians.

NEW MASONIC TEMPLE.

Monday the Ann Arbor Masons broke sod for their new $250,000 Masonic temple. Rev. Leonard A. Barrett made the principal address. The new temple will stand on Fourth avenue.

DEGREE OF HONOR ENJOYS SOCIAL EVENING.

The Degree of Honor held a potluck supper and social meeting Tuesday evening. Among the social events given was an old-fashioned spelling bee, where sides were chosen and a prize awarded to the one who "spelled down the school."

KIWANIS CLUB ENTERTAINS LADIES.

The Kiwanis club members entertained the ladies Wednesday evening at the Country club by a dinner and dance. Dr. Stalker, of Ann Arbor, who recently returned from abroad, gave an interesting talk.

SPENDS INTERESTING SUMMER ABROAD.

Mrs. Bessie Priddy, dean at the Normal college, and daughter, Frances, spent the summer in England, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy and France. They also visited many of the western battle fronts at Ypres, Arres, Lille, Rhein, Soissons, Chateau Thiery, Verdon, Metz and Lorraine. From there they coasted down the River Rhine to the American army of occupation.

17 YEAR OLD SON GETS DRUNK

CLAIMS HE GOT LIQUOR IN BELLEVILLE BUT DID NOT KNOW THE PARTY'S NAME THAT SOLD IT.

Last Friday before Justice Stadtmiller a father brought his 17-year-old son, stating that his son had left home the previous night sober and came home under the influence of liquor; that his son refused to tell where he got the liquor. Before Justice Stadtmiller the boy admitted the truth of the charge and said he got the whisky, a quart, in Belleville. He said that he could point out the house but did not know the party's name that sold him the whisky.

The father took the boy to Belleville with the intention of getting out a search warrant and also arresting the offender. Belleville being in Wayne county, the arrest and warrant would have to be made in that county.

Before a woman's club in Ypsilanti recently it was stated that there were no less than seven places in this city where liquor was being sold. Chief Connors stated Saturday that no woman had ever complained to him about liquor being made or sold and that if this statement is true that all one would have to do is to swear out a search warrant and that the premises would be searched and arrests make if liquor is found.

CLEARY COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT

The thirty-seventh commencement program of the Cleary college will be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21 and 22. Mr. J. D. James, of Scranton, Pa., general agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, will give the commencement address. Following is the program of exercises:

Friday, Oct. 21—8 p. m., junior reception.

Saturday, Oct. 22—2 p. m., class meeting; 2:30 p. m., commencement exercises; 4:30 p. m., alumni meeting; 6:15 p. m., alumni and class banquet.

PROGRAM AT TUTTLE HILL SCHOOL.

A musical program will be given in observance of music week at the Tuttle Hill school Friday evening, Oct. 21, at 7:30 o'clock. Every family, whether they have children in school or not, is urgently requested to attend. Mr. Essery, school commissioner, is expected to be present.

MARRIED AT BAPTIST PARSONAGE.

Mrs. Cora Clark and Ralph Ransom, of Ann Arbor, were quietly married Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. C. S. Burns. They will reside with the bride's brother, Carl Dolbee, for the present. The groom is employed as a machinist at the Motor Products company, Ann Arbor.

The rotogravure supplement of the Sunday Detroit Free Press showed a bird's eye view of Ypsilanti, taken by an airman in his flight over the city. The picture is very plain, a number of business places being easily recognized.

NO TRACE OF STOLEN CAR.

Wm. D. Crocker stated Tuesday that no trace of his automobile had been found by officers. His car was stolen Sunday from in front of the Martha Washington theatre. Some one also took the car of A. Albertson on Sunday night for a joy ride. A note was found in it thanking the owner for the use of the car.

ACQUITTED OF CHARGE.

Peter Golden, accused by Claude Willis of assault and battery, was acquitted of the charge in a trial before Justice Stadtmiller, held on Tuesday. Golden admitted that he took hold of one of the boys after he told them to move, when he testified they used shocking language in the hearing of Golden's wife, who was ill at her home about 80 feet away from where the boys were talking. Lee N. Brown represented the people, while Justice D. Z. Curtiss represented Golden.

PAYS COST OF $3.45

J. Williams was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Dick Elliott, accused by E. L. Squires of giving a check for $100 in payment of an automobile that he had purchased from Squires. Williams admitted he gave the check but stated the automobile was not as represented. He made the check good and paid costs of $3.45

LIFE SENTENCE FOR SAM MOCERI

JURY OUT 45 MINUTES AND BROUGHT IN VERDICT OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER.

Tuesday forenoon at 10:30 the case of Sam Moceri, charged with the murder of George Burg and his hired man, Fulmer, on the forenoon of July 15, was given to the jury and it took them just 45 minutes to bring in a verdict of murder in the first degree. Wednesday afternoon Judge Sample sentenced Moceri to solitary confinement in Marquette prison for life.

As James Galbraith, foreman of the jury, gave the findings of the jury there was not a sound in the courtroom, when the stillness was broken by Mrs. Rose Mazzola, an aunt of Moceri, who uttered shriek after shriek and called down curses upon the men she claimed were responsible for the crime. She was led from the courtroom screaming and pounding herself. In another room she met Lieut. MacPherson, of the Detroit detective bureau, and Deputy Sheriff Dick Elliott and shouted at them, "You are the men that convicted my boy, may God strike you both dead."

As Prosecutor Fahrner was summing up the evidence to the jury the mother of Moceri got to her feet and in a hysterical outburst, shouting that her son was a good boy, that he had never been in trouble, and that he was not a bad boy. She then, in Italian, called the curse of heaven upon those who would take her son's liberty away.

Tony Spino and Peter Orlando, two other members of the murder gang, testified for the state in the conviction of Moceri, and will be tried at this term of court on the same charge.

DISSOLVES ATTACHMEN SUIT.

Judge Sample, in an opi handed down by him Tuesday, solved the attachment suit brou by Frances Childs against L Wright. The case was dismissed the ground that the affidavit defective and failed to give Just Curtiss jurisdiction. In the ot two cases brought before Just Curtiss, and which were asked be dissolved, Judge Sample held th affidavits were good and sustaine the ruling of Justice Curitss. These cases were A. L. Vedder vs. Lewis Wright, and Garth Beckington vs. Lewis Wright.

FINDS STOLEN CAR.

Paul Herig, commercial artist, of Belleville, reported to the police late Tuesday night that his automobile was stolen. Within an hour Wm. Vay, patrolman, found the car in front of a jewelry store down town. A young man, aged 15 years, was seen to leave the car and the police are sure they have the guilty party. Herig had not claimed the car late Wednesday and it is not known if he will prosecute the alleged suspect.

TWO CONCERT COURSES AT A. A.

THE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MUSIC BOOKS FINE TALENT.

The two big concert courses which are being conducted this season by the University School of Music promises to make Ann Arbor more than ever a leading musical center. The selection of artists and organizations which were made by the retiring director, Mr. Stanley, for this year's concerts have met with more than usual approval on the part of the public, for the number of advance orders which have already been received is far in excess of previous years. Secretary Sink and his corps of assistants have been exceedingly busy during the past few weeks in handling the large numbers of mail orders which have been pouring in on every mail, not only from patrons living in Ann Arbor bht from surrounding cities and towns. In an interview today Mr. Sink stated that the orders received to date would be more than sufficient to fill the entire allotment of block A ($6) in the Choral Union series and that it would be necessary to assign some ordering seats at this price to less expensive locations. He particularly urged the public not to send in orders at this price. It is still possible to fill orders in blocks B, C and D at $5.50, $5 and $4.50 each. All orders received before Friday of this week will be filled in advance of the general public sale announced for Saturday at 8 o'clock in Hill auditorium. At that time all tickets which have not been ordered by mail will be thrown open to the general public. Secretary Sink also stated that the number of orders being received for the ex eries, which will in the Detroit S h celebr

RAY BATTERY SHUT OUT MILAN.

Sunday the Milan ball team came to Ypsilanti with the intention of showing up the Ray Battery and were taken into camp by a score of 6 to 0. The game started ou tin real league shape and for two innings the Milan ball tossers put up a fair sample of ball, when the Battery boys got next to Milan's hired pitcher and pounded out the runs. Rynearson was given gilt edge support by his team mates and had the border town boys at his mercy.

WINTER RECREATION STARTS

Under direction of Deyo S. Leland and Miss Mabel Eichhorn the winter rerreation work has started in the city. The Normal college gymnasium and swimming pools have been secured and a fine program of recreation will be arranged for the winter. A small fee will be charged to defray expenses for towels, etc.

FIRST LECTURE OCTOBER 18TH

LORADO TAFT, FAMOUS SCULPTOR, WILL OPEN COURSE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT.

Announcement is made of the Normal lecture course for the year 1921-22. The list of entertainments offered this season is of unusual merit

The first number on the program is a lecture, entitled "A Glimpse of a Sculptor's Studio," Oct. 18, by the famous sculptor and lecturer, Lorado Taft. Mr. Taft is not only an excellent speaker but has the unusual ability of modeling clay figures on the platform as he talks, so that his platform becomes in reality an artist's studio. Mr. Taft never fails to give a delightful and instructive entertainment. He has been connected with the Art institute of Chicago for more than 30 years as instructor in modeling and as lecturer. He is professional lecturer on the history of art at the University of Chicago and non-resident professor of art at the University of Illinois. He is a member of the National Sculpture society, of the National academy, of the American Institute of Architects Letters, an honorary member of he American Institute of Architecst, and is one of the board of art advisors for the state of Illinois.

On Dec. 12 Brooks Fletcher, the famous dramatic orator, will speak on "The Tragedy of he Unprepared." Mr. Fletcher spoke three years ago in Ypsilanti and was most enthusiastically received.

The big number of the course undoubtedly is the lecture by the famous Arctic explorer, Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who will speak on "My Five Years in the Arctic." Mr. Stefansson has a most thrilling story and is one of the most sought after lecturers on the platform today.

On March 3 a modern comedy will given under the direction of of. J. Stuart Lathers, and the rse will be closed March 20 a lecture on "Birds and Their gs" by Charles Crawford Gorst.

ACHERS ASK FOR RAISE AT INSTITUTE

J. Pearse, president of the waukee Training college, opened twelfth annual Washtenaw ty teachers' institute at the Arbor high school Monday ing. He pleaded for better pensation for teachers and gnition of teaching as a pro- on.

Our efforts to have teaching gnized as a profession," said ident Pearse, "are not meeting any noticeable success at the ent time. This is due partly to lack of ambition displayed by teachers. The difference be- en teaching and the other pro- sions is recognized, but the fact t teaching is really a profession, stinct in its nature of others, is t recognized or realized. The ck consult with specialists on eal th subjects; those in need of gal aid and advice seek an attor- ey. The authority on training and knowledge should make himself a distinctive object in his community. Teaching as a profession is not a paying proposition. Before greater salaries can be secured for teachers they must be noticed and respected in their communities."

Speaking of the value of married women as teachers, President Pearse stated that he believed that the married teacher did not have as many outside interests as was stated in Detroit recently, and that a married woman was better fitted for her duties than many single women who had divided interests and no home.

President Pearse's address was followed by a talk by Miss Edith Thomas, Dr. M. S. Pittman, of Ann Michigan Library Extension course, who spoke on "Adventures in Reading." After the address by Miss Thomas the assembly adjourned for the banquet which was held in the gymnasium of the high school.

Impromptu talks were given at the dinner by Superintendent L. A. Butler, of Ann Arbor; Miss Edith Thomas, Dr. M. S. Pittman, of this Arbor, and President C. J. Pearse. Superintendent H. A. Tape, of Milan, officiated as toastmasetr. About 400 teachers and instructors attended the meeting.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Motion pictures, "Ram Das," which pictures life in India and especially the mass movement of whole villages toward Christianity. Mr. Elliott will speak on "The Achievement of Modern Missions." In the morning he will speak on "Those Quiet, Growing Years," being a second sermon on "The Life of Jesus Christ."

Sunday school meets at 11:45 o'clock, young people's meeting at 6 o'clock in the evening, and the picture service at 7 o'clock.

OCTOBER 20TH DELIVERY DAY

COUNTY NEAR EAST PLANS COMPLETED — GRAIN TO BE ASSEMBLED OCT. 20.

Plans for the Near East relief campaign in Washtenaw county have been completed. Township chairmen have been selected by the county committee and chairmen in each school district have been chosen by most of the township chairmen. Already some of the districts are getting their grain together. Oct. 20 is the date designated for delivery of grain to the elevators. The grain will be received at the following places in Washtenaw county: Manchester, Hoffer's mill; Saline, Saline Mercantile company; Ann Arbor, Michigan Milling company, Central mill; Milan, Auten Elevator company; Ypsilanti, Co-op elevator; Dexter, Dexter Co-op association; Chelsea, Holmes elevator and mill; Whitmore Lake, Michigan Milling company.

Elevators will give receipts for the grain received. Washtenaw county's quota amounts to three carloads of wheat or its equivalent value in other grains. The Near East relief committee advises that 95 cents out of every dollar's worth of grain will reach the relief district to which it is assigned. Reports being received from the Near East relief headquarters show that the farmers are responding very well to the plan of assembling grain within the county, and if every person associated with this work will do his share the drive will be put across on record time. The county committee is very anxious that the campaign be thorough and brief and every farmer do all he can to facilitate the assembling of the grain. The Michigan mills are grinding the grain into coarse flour for the bran and middlings. The Michigan Milling company has agreed to grind Washtenaw county's quota. They are anxious to start on the order and are planning to do so immediately after the 20th.

The relief table is now 24 miles long. Twenty thousand children must die this winter if food does not reach them before snow flies. A bag of wheat per farm or its equivalent value in other grains will provide Washtenaw county's quota.

ENTERTAINS FOR BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. D. K. Schafer, of Dearborn, was pleasantly entertained Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Nier, in honor of her birthday. Covers were laid for 20. Those present from out of the city were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen and children, of Plymouth; A. A. Savage and family, of Detroit; D. K. Schaefer, Miss Grace Savage and brother, Durwood, of Dearborn.

Is Saline a busy place Saturday nights Well, yes. Last Saturday at 8 o'clock in the evening there were no less than 193 automobiles on the streets parked wherever they could find a place.—Saline Observer.

It is now definitely known that the county road commissioners will build a good road into Willis. In present one running south of this village west to the county line, where the Washtenaw county road commissioners will meet them and build a good road into Wilils. In fact, Washtenaw county has already improved that part of the road in their county. The project has so far materialized that Wayne county has already secured a site for yards at Willis and has made the survey for them. This will be another good addition to the cement roads in this section of the county.—Belleville Enterprise.

Total shipments from the Van Buren grape belt this season was about 500 carloads. Of these 138 went from Lawton and 128 from Mattawan. Prices were at one time more than $100 per ton, but fell to $80 and $85 per ton. The season was two to three weeks earlier than usual.

Seven cows, valued at $700, were killed last Thursday night when the motorman of the 7 o'clock westbound interurban car drove into a herd of cattle belonging to Freeman Carr of the Avondale Stock farms. Witnesses of the accident claim that the motorman made no attempt to bring his car under control as he approached the herd when the sounding of the whistle failed to frighten the cows off the railway right of way.—Wayne Weekly.

The Northville Record mentions in its fair list of visitors last week and one time former residents: Mrs. Alice Flint, Mrs. Ruby West, Mrs. Lee Dawson, Mrs. W. M. Dawson and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Evans and the latter's mother, all of Ypsilanti.

CHURCHES IN BIG SESSION

IMPORTANT NATIONAL AND STATE CONFERENCES IN DETROIT NOV. 14-22.

The 155,000 Michigan members of the Methodist Episcopal church are enthusiastically rallying to the support of the greatest gathering of Methodist church leaders ever held in this state. The nine-day sessions begins at the Central Methodist Episcopal church, Detroit, on Monday, Nov. 14, and last through Tuesday of the following week.

The conferences will be under the auspices of the church's council of boards of benevolences, a body representing the ten benevolent societies of Michigan. These are the societies that are receiving and disbursing the money raised in the "centenary campaign" of 1919. This meeting in Detroit this year will have the distribution of about $15,000,000 to make among the ten boards. But the main emphasis of the conferences will be upon the spiritual value of the greatly enlarged program which the centenary is enabling Methodism to carry on in needy fields not only in America but in Asia, Africa and in Europe.

Twenty-five bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church and more than 400 district superintendents will attend. Together with five laymen and five pastors from each bishop's area they will attend the delegated meeting in the church house of Central church. At the same time a second meeting for Michigan Methodists will be held in the main auditorium of the church. This session will be for Michigan area only. Bishop Theodore S. Henderson is presiding officer of the area and Dr. Hugh Kennedy is secretary.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 15 and 16, and for two sessions on Thursday the program will be the same at both conferences. Men of national and international repute, among them Secretary Herbert Hoover, will be the speakers. On Wednesday evening, in addition to the sessions at Central church, mass meetings with prominent speakers will be held in six other Detroit churches. The Thursday evening meeting will be held at the North Woodward tabernacle.

On Sunday, Nov. 20, the bishops and other church leaders will occupy Methodist pulpits in Detroit and in towns and cities within a considerable radius of Detroit.

The business sessions of the conferences will include the following: Meeting of the executive committee of the council of boards of benevolences, Nov. 14, 18, 19; of the committee on conservtaion and advance, Nov. 18, 19; annual meeting of the council of boards of benevolence, Nov. 21 and 22. The ten societies represented in the cuncil are: Board of home missons and church extension, board of foreign missions, board of educatin, board of education for negroes, American Bible society, board of hospitals and homes, board of Epworth league, board of Sunday schools, board of temperance ,prohibition and public morals, general board of deaconesses.

Other official meetings of Methodist bodies will follow closely after the gathering in Detroit. The fall meeting of the board of bishops convenes in Syracuse Nov. 24-27; annual meeting of the board of foreign missions in New York Nov. 28-30; annual meeting bard of home missions and church extension in Philadelphia Dec. 1-3.

CASES REPORTED AT RATE OF 1,000 A MONTH—DISEASE INCREASES.

Sixteen thousand dollars a day, or more than $500,000 a month, is the cost of diphtheria to the people of Michigan at the present time, according to recent figures of the state department of health.

Diphtheria is being reported to the department at the rate of 1,000 cases a month. With this prevalence 100 deaths a month may be expected, it is said. Using the courts' value of $5,000 for a human life, health authorities estimate that diphtheria is costing $500,000 monthly in the loss of vital assets alone. Money costs in loss of time from sickness and medical expenses were not computed in the foregoing estimates.

Five communicable diseases—measles, pneumonia, syphilis, gonorrhea and chancroid—show decreases in reported cases during the first nine months of 1921, according to records of the bureau of communicable diseases. Frm Jan. 1 to Oct. 1 a total of 51,631 cases of communicable disease was reported in comparison to 68,580 during the same period last year. This represents a total decrease of 16,949 reported cases of sickness. Measles decreased by 19,067 cases, pneumonia by 3,386, syphilis by 438, gonorrhea by 932, and chancroid by 79.

All other diseases have increased, judging from reports reieived Diphtheria, for example, shows an increase of 1,201 cases over a year ago.

SMART FROCKS

for Stree and Afternoon Wear

Neither the season's first afternoon party nor the first cool days should find you without a suitable Frock when there are such individual styles as these.

OF CLOTH AND VERY SMART

No woman ever thinks of going through the cooler months without a good looking Cloth Dress and these clever Frocks attractively priced answer both questions: Where shall I get it? How shall it be made.

OF CREPE IN DRESSY MODES

These afternoon Frocks allow much individual preference as to style, but as to fabric you must be within the pale and so they are mostly of satin backed or very crinkly Canton Crepe.

OF ESTABLISHED RENOWN

Country Club Frocks and Jumper Dresses seem to have not only a "Get Popular Quick" scheme but a "Stay Popular Always" secret, for here is a brand new assortment better looking and more diversified than ever.

MEN OF JUST ONE TYPE ARE INTERESTED IN THIS STORE

A man of this type is invariably particular about the quality of those intimate personal belongings that indicate his naural good taste. There is never a need to remind him that the finest is also always the cheapest in the end. Such men—and there are many of them in town—are the mainstay of our shop and always will be. If you are one—and we're not acquainted yet—please drop in. We'll be glad to give you the best word in overcoats, furnishings and lounge or evening clothes, whether you need anything at the moment or no.

And you'll be glad to know we've just received a new lot of rather unusual clothes for gentlemen. You've doubtless known of them for years—they're

Obituary

Mrs. Helen Manly, who lived for many years north of here, passed away at her home in Ann Arbor Sunday morning at the age of 83 years after an illness of several weeks from heart trouble and some complications. She was highly esteemed as a friend and neighbor, of a quiet nature, but always a reliable Christian helper. She was a consistent member of the M. E. church. She leaves one son, Mason, of Grand Rapids, and one daughter, Mrs. Eva Covert; six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Her funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at her late home in Ann Arbor. Her husband, Wm. Manly, died several years ago. The world is always better for the life of such as was hers.

Mr. William Davis

News of the death of Wm. Davis, a former resident of Ypsilanti, who died after a short illness at Berkeley, Calif., Saturday, Oct. 8, was received by his sister, Mrs. Arthur Ament. The deceased was born in this city 50 years ago and was engaged in the shoe business with his father on Michigan avenue until he removed to California 25 years ago, where he was a prosperous merchant. Funeral was held Tuesday, with burial at Berkeley. Besides his sister he is survived by a widow, formerly of this city, and a son, 11 years old, also a brother, Lloyd, of Canada.

Mr. John Thumm.

A telegram was received Tuesday from Eau Clair of the death of John Thumm, who died of old age Monday at the home of his son, L. Thumm. The deceased passed his 89th birthday on Sept. 24. Mr. Thumm was a pioneer of Superior township, living in a log cabin on the Amos Wilbur farm, now known as the Lee Wilbur farm, on Prospect road. His wife preceded him in death several years ago. Funeral services were held from his late residence Friday. He was a great-uncle of the Misses Hannah and Ida Thumm and Charles Thumm, of Superior, also of the Misses Thumm, of Grove street, and an uncle of Edward Thumm, Sr., of Ypsilanti township.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14-15

H. B. WARNER, the screen's fashion plate, makes the appeal of his screen career as the man who sacrifices his own honor for that of his foster son. "WHEN WE WERE TWENTY-ONE," a play for those who are 21 years old—or young. Comedy, "LAW AND ORDER." FOUR ACTS VIAUDEVILLE.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 16

MARY ANDERSON as "BUBBLES," that's for joy. The story of a girl who wanted to be a boy! Bubbles is a joy forever, with her little heart bubbling over with buoyant youthfulness—there is no villain to worry about—Fun and laughter run riot until Dan Cupid takes a hand and stops the show. You know the rest—handsome hero, blushing bride and Bubbles whispering into her hubby's ear, "IF MUSIC BE THE FOOD OF LOVE, PLAY ON!" Comedy, "AFRAID OF HIS WIFE." THE YANKEE-LAND MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY in "SHIP AHOY."

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17-18.

"THE MYSTERY MIND," with an all-star cast headed by J. Robert Pauline, VIOLET MACMILLAN, Paul Panzer and Paggy Shanor. The Aristocrat of Serials. A MILLION DOLLAR Production in fifteen two-reel episodes. MISS MACMILLAN WILL APPEAR IN PERSON ON THESE TWO DAYS AND WILL ANSWER ANY QUESTION "HOW TO GET INTO THE MOVIES." WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19-20

"IT CAN BE DONE," one of the most pleasing photoplays of the year, filled with suspense and springing a series of surprises on the audience in rapid succession. The characters are true to life and of types that hold the attention and give a production a touch of realism that offers a strong appeal. The story of an author who made a wager that he could live one of his stories. He found truth if far more exciting and wild than the fiction he had created. The role is capably handled by EARLE WILLIAMS, the star whose following increases with each release. Comedy "SNEAKERS." Special added attraction, "CAPT. H. J. LEWIS," the famous guide of San Francisco, will appear in person, presenting his wonderful motion picture travelogue, "America's Greatest Chinatown."

SPECIAL NOTE: Miss MacMillan, who palys opposite J. Robert Pauline in "THE MYSTERY MIND" and who will make her personal appearance with the first episode of this serial, is said to have the smallest foot in the world for a person of her size. The shoe she wears is six and one-half inches long.

A message to fall shoppers

New styles in Wooltex Tailor-mades now on display

But we have more than a message for you—really more like an illustrated lecture with mostly things to see; new Wooltex Tailor-mades that just arrived. The important part of our message contains an invitation for you to view them.

THE QUALITY

There's no satisfaction in buying clothes that lose their smartness and wear out almost before you begin enjoying them. That's why we buy Wooltex for you each year, so that you shall have the best in fabric and tailoring. Satisfaction and long wear is a foregone conclusion with them.

AND THE PRICE

No prices are as low as we should like them. But you'll discover that our prices on Wooltex Tailor-mades are much lower than you anticipated. That is because the manufacturers and we have co-operated to give you fine merchandise at prices you can afford to pay.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

One-Ton Truck Chassis $445

F. O. B. Detroit With Pneumatic Tires and Demountable Rims

The One-Ton Truck

The Ford One-Ton Truck first made its appeal to the farmer and the merchant because of the merits of Ford Cars. And it made its wonderful reputation and great sales record because it lived up to every claim made for it.

The reliable Ford Motor, the special Ford steel chassis, the aluminum bronze worm-drive, all combine to produce a truck of unusual power, capacity and strength—a truck that lasts in service; a truck that solves the haulage problem at a very small operating and upkeep expense. Hence the demand for the Ford One-Ton Truck is constantly on the increase.

For the good of your business, whether it be farming, merchandising or manufacturing, you should come in and look over the Ford One-Ton Truck—NOW!

IMPORTANT

We are prepared to furnish the Ford Truck equipped either with Standard or Special Gearing. The Standard Gearing gives the truck a maximum of power. The Special Gearing increases the speed of the truck from five to seven miles an hour, converting it into a Fast Delivery Car.

Do You Trust Your Watch?

You've see people look at their watch and then ask some one else the time of day.

He can't trust his watch.

If yours is that kind you'd better throw it away.

If you're going to buy a new watch be sure that you get a trusworthy watch—one that you can swear by; one that you can catch the train by, or keep an engagement by.

We sell trustworthy watches and guarantee them.

Your Voice is You

There is a peculiar quality in each human voice that is so individual that the very personality of the speaker is given out.

How often do your friends say to you, "Oh, I knew you by your voice?"

For this reason long-distance telephone conversations have an emphatic value aside from the convenience of an immediate reply to questions and the opportunity for discussion.

Send your own voice over the Long Distance wire in all important transactions and it is as if you had been present yourself. This is the satisfying way—the modern way to transact your affairs.

The following information about different classifications of Long Distance calls will aid you in using the telephone most economically and efficiently.

1. If you will talk to any person answering the telephone, the toll charge will be about one-fifth less than as if you had asked for a particular person at that address.
2. Such service between 8.30 P. M. and Midnight costs only about one-half the day rates and between Midnight and 4.30 A. M. it costs only about one-fourth the day rates.
3. Particular person calls are those in which you ask to talk with a particular person in another city. On this class of calls a report charge is made if the person asked for cannot be communicated with through no fault of the Telephone Company. This charge is not made if the connection is established. The report-charge amounts to about one-fifth of the particular person rate.
4. Charges can be reversed only on particular person calls.

Call the Long Distance Operator. She Will Connect You.

"DE CENSOS, SHE EES CRAZE"

The old habitant of Quebec, who will be depressingly amazed to discover that the census man gives that province a bare 2,345,678 of a population, will trot out his decennial explanation in extenuation:

"Sacre nom de bleu," Jean Baptiste will splutter, "de censos man he come to me on de farm and he say: 'Jean Baptiste, how many lil' boy and lil' girl you got dis tam by you?' An' w'en I say, takken' ma tam', so's not forget:

"Dere's Jeanne—Marie—Rosine—Angelique — Sophie — Josette — dat's de lil' girl——

"So dere you see how it come Canadaw got so few population! Me wit' six lil' boy and six lil' girl—and he put down only one of each kin'. Sacre nom de bleu if dar is not a danne eensult for a brave habitant. Why, de fu'st tam' Victorine—dat's me femme—is tell me go queek for de docteur, we'en I come ba'k from fetch heem, she got two leetle boy and one leetle girl for Jean Baptiste. And after dat we nevaire get less 'an tweens at de one tam'. And de censos man he write down: One boy, one girl!" —Vancouver World.

INDIANS IN THE WORLD WAR

Ten Thousand Fullblooded Redskins Lie With American Dead in France.

How many people in this country were aware before they read a recent cable from London that 10,000 fullblooded Indians lie with the American dead in France? Honor of a conspicuous sort has been done to almost every class and group and race that contributed in any way to the allied victory before the world was reminded of the singular part played in the war by those Americans who may properly be called 100 per cent. The United States and all its people owe a debt to Dr. Joseph K. Dixon, of this city, and to the founder of the Wanamaker historical expeditions for the part they played in bringing recognition formally to the American Indian. Haig, Foch and Pershing found these tribesmen deserving of a place with the noblest soldiers of all time. They were cool, dispassionate fighters, invariably brave and marvelous as marksmen. Most of them were volunteers. The Indian in France may yet live in a great American epic. He never knew complete freedom, yet he went out to fight for it until he died.—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

Recovering Art Treasures.

Czecho-Slovakia is the latest of the states to begin the recovery of art and historical objects awarded under the treaty of St. Germain and now in the palaces and museums of Vienna. A commission has just been appointed for that purpose.

These comprise, among other things, the almost priceless documents, historical memoirs, maps and other material which Thaulaw von Rosenthal removed from Prague by order of the Empress Maria Theresa. Then there are the valuable documents originally contained in the Royal Aulic chancellory of Bohemia and the Aulic Chamber of Accounts of Bohemia, as well as the works of art formerly in the royal chateau of Prague and other castles of the Hapsburgs located in what is now Czecho-Slovakia and which were removed to Vienna during the reigns of Emperors Mathias, Ferdinand II, Charles VI (about 1788-1837) and Francis Joseph I.

"St. Napoleon."

Saint Napoleon sounds somewhat strange to ears of English-speaking persons, but it is nevertheless a fact. At the heyday of his fame, Bonaparte discovered that it would be well for him, and the Napoleonic dynasty which he hoped to found, that a name-patron should find prominence in French history. With obliging zeal his ecclesiastical supporters managed to trace an obscure faithful one Neopolas, who had been martyred in Alexandria. Upon his memory the aureole was placed; the French bishops received a pastoral letter from their cardinal chief; and Pius VII called St. Napoleon into being. His day was the emperor's birthday, August 15, and upon it the dual event was celebrated.

Wearing Out Clubs.

He had taken up golf, and after playing a week he went to buy some new clubs.

"Did you break the ones I sold you about a week ago?" asked the club dealer.

"No, I didn't break any of 'em," was the reply, "but I took so many shots with 'em that they're worn out!"—Yonkers Statesman.

A Lowdown Trick.

Mrs. Lamb—I see you're not speaking to Mrs. Fox.

Mrs. Wolf—I should say not! She told me her cook was a treasure and I found the cook dirty, lazy, incompetent and dishonest after I'd doubled her wages to get her away from Mrs. Fox

Lovable Jackie

There are many reasons why boys the world over admire and like little Jackie Coogan, "The Kid" of the movies. It isn't just because he's such a famous actor, but because he is such a genuine and red-blooded chap at work and at play. He first learned to dress with care because it pleased his mother. He does it now because he likes good clothes. He looks at it this way:

"In 'The Kid' I wore old and ragged clothes because of the part I played. In real life I wear the best clothes I can find because I want to respect myself and have other boys and grown-ups like the way I look. Jackie Coogan Clothes are that kind."

JACKIE COOGAN

We sell Jackie Coogan Clothes—identical in materials, style and service with the suits and overcoats that the boy movie star always wears in private life.

See Jackie Coogan in "Peck's Bad Boy" at the Martha Washington Thursday and Friday, Oct. 13 and 14.
